Scholarships – First Presbyterian Church of Northville

Please find below the description for each of the scholarships the church offers along with the requirements for each. You will note that the Van Soest scholarship is determined in consultation between the pastoral staff and other leaders within the church and no application is necessary.

Marlow Van Soest Endowment: Annually awarded to a high school senior (or seniors) who most embodies the dedication and commitment to the cause of Christ, which Marlow Van Soest embraced. No formal application is necessary, simply ask to have your name placed under consideration.

Educational Endowment: Financial assistance is given to a person or persons accepted to an institution of higher education, at an undergraduate or graduate level. Recipients are required to have average academic achievement of 2.5 GPA or higher. Additional consideration will be given to the degree of participation in church programs such as worship, service, mission trips, and youth group activities. Multiple recipients can be awarded.

Please fill out the enclosed application, including the written statement. As part of the evaluation process, interviews may be conducted between the applicants and the committee, who in conjunction with pastoral staff, will make the final decision as to who the recipients are and how much they will receive.

Finally, in addition to our church scholarships, the PCUSA offers additional opportunities for financial support. For more information please visit: www.pcusa.org/financialaid.
